

I do not buy any goods or services over the telephone and expect that my wishes not to be contacted by telemarketers should be respected. My home phone is part of my personal space and should not be allowed to be violated by a commercial group. I am elderly and getting to the phone causes physical pain and is a potential hazard.